

Figure 3. Seedlings density (fir: white bar and spruce: black bar) before and after partial cut for natural stands and plantations. Lower-case letters indicate a significant difference before vs after partial cut for a given species in each stand type, while asterisk indicate a significant difference between species for each stand type in a given period.