

Figure 1. Biofilm Life Cycle

Stage 1: Planktonic and free-floating bacteria make contact with a surface randomly or by chemical attraction.

Stage 2: Cells aggregate and form micro colonies on the surface; nascent biofilm is formed.

Stage 3: Dispersion phase, virulent bacteria disperse and can readily colonize other surfaces.