Dear Editors-in-Chief:

Please find uploaded a file of original manuscript, titled "Acinetobacter thutue* sp. nov. and Acinetobacter kontum sp. nov., isolated from motorbike repairing workshop soil" by Nhan Le Thi Tuyet and Jaisoo Kim. For possible publication in the diversity, we would like to have this manuscript checked by editors and reviewers who are scientists in the area of Bacterial Systematics and/or Microbiology.

This manuscript introduces valuable isolates that may not been cultivated previously due to extreme conditions as well as its taxonomic and genomic properties. I believe that all the contents of this manuscript are suitable to the section, "Microbial Diversity and Culture Collection."

Should you need to contact me, please use the above address or call me at +82-31-249-9648. You may also contact me by fax at +82-31-249-9604 or via email at jkimtamu@kgu.ac.kr.

Sincerely,

Jaisoo Kim, Ph.D.
